

Workshop: Self-Employment in Historical Perspective

December 15-16, 2016

International Institute of Social History

Cruquiusweg 31, 1019 AT, Amsterdam

Thursday, December 15, 2016

12:00 Lunch & welcome

13:00 Karin Hofmeester (International Institute of Social History)

13:45 Dieter Bögenhold (Alpen-Adria Universität Klagenfurt)

14:30 Break

15:00 W. David Allen (University of Alabama in Huntsville)

15:45 Jan Lucassen (International Institute of Social History)

16:30 Break

17:00 Sigrid Wadauer (Universität Wien)

17:45 Drinks + Dinner

Friday, December 16, 2016

09:15 Gijs Kessler (International Institute of Social History)

10:00 Ted Gerber (University of Wisconsin-Madison)

10:45 Break

11:15 Rombert Stapel (International Institute of Social History)

Richard Zijdemann (International Institute of Social History/Stirling University)

12:00 Discussion

12:45 Lunch & good bye

The Global Collaboratory on the History of Labour Relations, 1500-2000

Self-Employment and Industrial Relations: Historical and Theoretical Considerations on the Socioeconomic Heterogeneity of a Statistical Category

Self-Employment and Its Orientations: Socio-Economic Patterns of Labour
Demand and Labour Relations

Between Self-Employment and Wage Labour: Cooperative Subcontracting in Manual Brickmaking, Lippe-Detmold 1650-1900

Terms and Possibilities of Self-Employment: Austria, 1880-1938

Self-Employment in the Soviet Union: the Antithesis to State Employment

Self-Employment in Post-Soviet Russia

The Influence of Educational Attainment on Self-Employment across

Occupational Sectors: United States, 1850-2010